

The second part of our photo gallery begins in the 2010 decade.

This was a New Beginning for the Vesta Church after the building was renovated to take care of mold and deterioration in the building.

Prior to the problems in 2009, the Vesta Church building was completely destroyed four times (two fires, one cyclone, and one time by heavy winds). The Vesta Church of Christ was a major meeting place in the Vesta Community for many years, and they have always “bounced back” with determination of the members and by the Grace of God.

The first part of this section of the photo album features Katheryn McCrary, “Ma” to most who know her.

Ma is the oldest active member of the congregation, and many McCrary descendants have attended the Vesta Church at one time or another. Currently, Ma’s daughter, Brenda Jones, attends regularly, and they bring Ma’s two Great Great Grandchildren often. Other members of her family visit at various times.

Katheryn came to the Vesta Community in 1945 shortly after she married Bob McCrary. Bob was a widower with three boys, and his parents lived in the Vesta Community and went to church at Vesta. Katheryn had a ready made family, and those boys along with their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren have continued to be her family to the present day along with her daughter and her family.

Ma is a great student of the Bible and has read the Bible through many times. She has and continues to live a Godly life. Katheryn has been a member at Vesta for 70 years.

She is one you can always count on to do whatever needs to be done. Even though she is 92 years old, she still does more than those many years younger.

When the renovations were done on the building, she was there every step of the way. She cooks and takes food to those who are sick or to the family of those who have lost loved ones. She checks on the sick regularly. She has cooked many a Sunday dinner for the preacher at the time. She is the patriarch of her family and is the one they have always turned to, and she is always there for them. When she is with any family member, you can tell the love that each has for the other.

Thank you, Ma, for being a part of all our lives.

Happy 90th Birthday Ma!!! -September 2013
